House of the Lawyer: Green & Sustainable

On Wednesday 18 October 2017, the President of Beirut Bar Association (BBA) Mr. Antonio Hachem, the President and CEO of Indevco Group Mr. Neemat Frem, and the President of the Committee of Energy and Water at the BBA (also President of IPT Energy Center (IPTEC)) Dr. Toni Issa, announced the completion of the first phase of the Solar Energy Project at the House of the Lawyer in Beirut, in the presence of the General Manager of Phoenix Energy Mr. Rabih Osta, the board members of the Committee of Energy and Water, and specialists in the field.

The project is based on a study prepared in collaboration with the Lebanese Center of Energy Conservation (LCEC) and was executed by Phoenix Energy in the form of a grant. It is part of a plan to convert the House of the Lawyer in Beirut into a green and sustainable building with the objective to minimize the building's carbon footprint and to conserve energy.
