Mountain Mudd History

Mountain Mudd Espresso was founded in 1994 by Brenda Burkhartsmeier and her sister-in-law, Louise. It started as one specialty coffee kiosk in Billings, Montana. Over the years, it has grown to 15 corporate owned kiosks in Billings Montana and co-ops 75 in 21 states. In October 2006, Partnered Beverages, that owned Mountain Mudd, joined Cenex Harvest States, Inc (CHS), a Fortune 200 company in expanding the concept into national franchise. In August 2007, Mountain Mudd Espresso was officially registered to sell franchises and is now spreading in most U.S States as well as Mexico, Canada, Turkey and Japan.

Mountain Mudd Lebanon and Middle East

Now, Mountain Mudd's unique drive-thru experience is now available in Lebanon and soon in the Middle East thanks to the Lebanese Investment and Procurement (LIP sal), a Lebanese food and beverage corporation and a member of the large petroleum group IPT holding designated as master franchisee in Lebanon and the Middle East of Partnered Beverages, the US corporation that owns the trademark "Mountain Mudd Espresso". Initially starting in IPT stations, Mountain Mudd will soon be available throughout the country and later the Middle East. Getting a much needed cup of coffee has never been more practical or delectable. Now you can fuel up and energize not just your car.

Moreover, Mountain Mudd is not limited by fixed kiosks. It evenly possesses mobile kiosks (easily and practical displaceable kiosks) which we tend to set up in several places starting from festivals to public gathering areas, events, exhibitions.
