IPTEC Session in IBEF, 26 Sept. 2018: "Transition towards Sustainable Transport Solutions"

The transport sector in Lebanon is a major contributor to air pollution. While some initiatives have tackled this major issue in the country, Lebanon still lacks a clear vision to solve the problems of the road transport sector. In partnership with IPTEC, this session will shed the light on the issue of sustainable transportation and e-mobility, offering a concrete successful case study that could be generalized nationwide.
