Dr. Issa: Switch to Sustainability for a Better Future

Pushing towards renewable energy and sustainability was the reason for the foundation of IPT Energy Center. Therefore our CEO and Vice Chairman Dr. Toni Issa takes every chance to talk about the importance of relying more on sustainability for a better future of the oil and gas sector. He invites to adopting green design and minimal energy and water consumption strategy, running safe efficient and responsible operations in order to contribute to a more sustainable energy future. To know more about the topic read the whole intervention of Dr. Issa by clicking on the following link.
