In view of the difficult and exceptional circumstances in the country, IPT decided in an unprecedented and responsible initiative to hire Lebanese workers at its service stations that are directly managed by the company. The available openings are the ones that are currently occupied by foreign workers namely gas filling, car washing, oil change, and other services.

Through this step, IPT is supporting the community and challenging the current hard social and economic situations. Not to mention that Lebanon is facing a significant increase in unemployment rates due to the lack of job opportunities. Read more
