This summer, we are moving from one IPT Station to another with many gifts and high standard services.

Elf Experts were available on Saturday 20 July at IPT Sustainable Station in Amchit to provide customers with free consultation and an oil test for their engines. Customers had the chance to know more about ELF lubricants specifications and were informed about the oil type that suits their engine and left with a gift in the hand and a smile on their face.

Meet us today, this week, and the next one and benefit from a premium European product and a professional oil change service and get the chance to win valuable prizes. Read more
