

TOTAL Liban appoints IPT official distributor of ELF

Under the auspices of, and in the presence of the president of the Union of Chambers of Commerce, Industry and Agriculture for the Arab Countries, Minister of State Adnan Kassar, a ceremony was held at the headquarters of the General Federation of Chambers of Commerce, Industry and Agriculture for Arab Countries, where a commercial agreement was signed between "Total Liban" and "IPT" appointing "IPT" an official distributor of Elf lubricants in Lebanon.

The event was attended by Dany Samaha, representative of the minister of Energy and Water; Rock Mhanna, representative of the minister of Interior and Municipalities; Maroun Chammas, president of APIC; and Dr. Charbel Michel Sleiman in addition to leading businessmen and journalists.

Tony Issa, member of the board of directors of IPT stressed the importance of the agreement with "Total Liban" especially that "Elf" is among the leading brands in the world in terms of recognition, distinction and quality and is one of the top superior quality engine lubricants worldwide.

In his turn, Jacques Souplet, CEO of Total Lebanon, emphasized that the agreement with a growing professional lubricant company such as IPT is an opportunity for the prestigious Elf brand to expand its presence in Lebanon. The ceremony was followed by a lunch to celebrate this new partnership.